

South-West based Multi Disciplined & Specialist Services Print business

Opportunity to acquire a well established, progressive multi-service print business with state of the art facilities and a diverse customer base.

Highlights include:

- Impressive profits on a £3,500,000 p.a. turnover
- Solid customer base with long standing relationships
- Contracts in place with blue chip companies
- Established for over 25 years
- Experienced and highly capable team in place
- Consistent and broad spread of work between litho/digital/large format & flexo
- Highly efficient systems in place with industry accreditations
- Strong environmental credentials

Exceptional opportunity to acquire a South-West based litho, digital, large format, flexographic, packaging & specialist services print business delivering impressive profits with significant scope for growth.

Providing an array of in-house, premium print and design services including litho & digital, flexographic, large format/POS, packaging, labels, fulfilment and mailing solutions; optimised processes and a highly skilled team are in place delivering outstanding levels of service.

The clients are a diverse spread of businesses across multiple sectors in the UK and in Europe including: retail, manufacturing, engineering, and medical, amongst others. The business maintains excellent client concentration levels, with the largest client contributing just 9% of sales turnover.

A large proportion of the work is repeat business due to the high quality delivered and excellent levels of service.

The business offers significant growth opportunities to the right acquirer; in addition to the above mentioned highlights the business is also a market leader in a niche sector within the industry (accounting for a significant % of revenue), whilst there are also sizeable expansion opportunities within the UK and Europe to be capitalised upon.

This is an ideal acquisition for a larger commercial printer looking to increase it's market share, or a litho/digital specific printer seeking to add additional expertise and services to their offering.
